Art Unit: 3751

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No.

6,701,981. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because all of the limitations in application claims 1-10 are found in patent claims 1-8. However, the application claims are broader than the patent claims in that some limitations have been omitted or paraphrased into broader form. For example, independent patent claims 1 and 8 both define a bottom side to the submerged frame and the fluid hose (or conduit in the application claims) to be attached to the submerged frame on the bottom side. Independent application claims 1 and 9 both omit the limitation of the bottom side with the attached conduit. Wherein it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that the invention could have been claimed in a broader fashion by omitting claim limitations.

3. Claims 1-10 would be allowable if the double patenting rejection(s) set forth in this Office action are overcome.
